

Concordia University
Girls Sunday Afternoon
Basketball League

You are invited to participate in the 2011 Girls Sunday Afternoon Basketball League at Concordia University. The league is designed to allow basketball players the chance to develop their skills while also competing in games. Each session will be comprised of a 45 minute fundamental skill and team practice session followed by an organized game. The focus will be on improving each player's skill level while promoting a Champion of Character philosophy in which all Concordia teams incorporate.
